SEMINARS ON EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EEO) FOR SUPERVISORS

In view of the key role played by supervisors in the implementation of Agency policies on Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO), the Office of Training will offer a series of two-day seminars to assist supervisory personnel in understanding policies and requirements set forth by the federal EEO Program.

A variety of techniques and methods will be utilized in the seminar--lectures, individual and group exercises, films, case studies, outside speakers, and discussion sessions.

These two-day, full-time seminars are offered to supervisors at any level who have not previously attended internal or external EEO training courses.

OBJECTIVES

At the conclusion of the seminar each participant will be able to describe:

1. What the EEO Program is and reasons for its existence.
2. The supervisor's responsibility in implementing the program.
3. The procedures for processing EEO complaints.
4. The Agency's record on EEO matters and affirmative action plans.
